Redmond Mustangs vs. Eastlake Wolves

GAME NOTES:

In the Wolves previous game played on a soggy Tuesday night against Juanita at Juanita, Eastlake's Robby Marsh turned away several shots in the first half and Tyler Klein's solid defense against Juanita and their current point leader, Tyler Bjork, helped keep the Rebels scoreless. Eastlake had fewer shots but good possession time and a handful of scoring opportunities in both halves, but as time wound down, it looked like the game would end in a nil-nil result. In the final two minutes of play, Juanita was called for a foul about 20 yards out near the top left corner of the penalty area. Juanita set up a wall, and Easton Fix surprised the Rebels by keeping the ball on the ground, sending it into the right side of the netting without it being touched by either defense or offense. In the final seconds of the match, Eastlake gave up not one, but two free kicks on their own 25 yard line, but both attempts were turned away by our wall, and the Wolves were happy to "sneak out of Dodge" with the one-nil victory. After tonight's contest, the Wolves travel to Interbay next Tuesday evening to take on Ballard, who has a record of 1-0-0 in KingCo 4A Conference play, and a 2-1-0 record overall.
