GAME NOTES:

Tonight's game is for "Top of the Table" bragging rights, with Eastlake and Garfield each holding identical 4-1 League records in the Lake Division.

Eastlake came out fast last Friday evening, with Ty Klein scoring a beautiful header off an assist from Michael Short in the early going. Later in the first half, Brandon Haberly placed a ball over the Kangs defender for Nick Rudella to bring down and put in the net for the Wolves' second score of the game. The second half was wet and cold, with rain that soon turned into large, wet snow flakes! The Kangs had some strong shots attempted by Colin Penitsch and Ian Nova, but Eastlake turned them away each time. With about five minutes left in the second half, Luis Lopez found Cutler Gray open with a nice pass on the right side of the box. Cutler put a move on the Kang's keeper, then buried a shot high in the back of the net from a steep angle for the Wolves third score.

The Bulldogs are coming off of an easy 10-0 win over Franklin last Friday, but had a tougher time with Bothell last Tuesday, winning by a single goal (2-1).
