GAME NOTES:

The Wolves finished up their regular season last Wednesday night when they honored their 8 Seniors at a special half-time program (thanks Cheryl!!)

Eastlake needed a win at home to secure the KingCo 4A Lake Division Championship. Thanks to some fine defense by the back line and solid work by back-up keeper Zach Wile, Eastlake only required a single goal to come out on top. After some scrappy work by Cutler Gray to retain possession, Gordon Savage gained an assist with his pass to Nick Rudella who scored what would become the game winning goal in the 30th minute.

Last Saturday night at Memorial Stadium, Lake Washington came back from a 1-0 half-time deficit against Garfield to tie it up and send it into overtime. Ian Nova scored the game winner in the opening seconds of OT. In the other elimination round game, Redmond (8-2-0 in league play) was surprised at home by Bothell (5-5-0 in league), and lost 0-2.

LW plays Bothell in the 5:30 pm game tonight also at Juanita preceding the KingCo 4A Championship game between Juanita and Eastlake. The winner of the 5:30 pm game plays the loser of tonight's Eastlake/Juanita match up on Thursday night. The winner of tonight's KingCo 4A Championship goes on to the State Tournament next Tuesday, May 13th (see playoff bracket above.) Eastlake beat Juanita earlier this year 1-0 in their prior meeting.
